PROF. W. I. THOMAS ON WOMAN'S DRESS

Chicago University Savant Stood Before Two Hundred Women And Answered Questions.

REPLIED TO THEM VERY WELL

Elaborate Dressing Is Not to Please Husbands but Chiefly for Other Women.

Chicage, Jan. 12 .- One lone man stood before 200 women yesterday afternoon and lectured on women's dress. When he had concluded, he besieged with questions and had an answer for each.

The lecturer was Prof. William I. Thomas of the University of Chicago, and his audience was composed of the members of the University guild, an exclusive Evanston organization, of exclusive Evanston organization, of which Mrs. James A. Patten is president, who gathered in the assembly hall of the Orrington Lunt library. "Do you think it a just accusation to say that women dress only to please men?" was one of the first questions put by a member of Prof. Thomas' audience.

"No," was the reply. "I regard it are the profession of the reply."

terested and causes a great deal of extravagance."
"Really, don't you think that women spend a great deal more on clothes than they would merely to please their husbands?" asked another.
"No, I think very little dressing is done for the sake of the husband; it is chiefly for other women," was the discouraging reply."
"Way is it that while women's dress has certainly grown no less attractive within the last two centuries, the dress of men has become more and more ugly?"
Without a moment's hesitation the reply came:

"It is simply that in a life where

"It is simply that in a life where activity counts, the most utility in dress and little else is taken into consideration. One advantage which men's clothes have over those of women, is that they last longer and do not cost as much."

Among the statements made by Prof. Thomas before the cross-examination began, was the following:
"As wealth becomes more and more potent in social life, man began to use his wife as a lay figure upon which he could hang signs of his prosperity. Women of the upper classes were not expected to do any sort of work and the route was a sort of work and the route was a comfortable one to travel. That state of affairs is now becoming untrue, Women are awakening and taking part in the social activities."

MRS. MORSE'S CAMPAIGN FOR HUSBAND'S PARDON

New Rork, Jan. 12.-Mrs. Charles W New Rork, Jan. 12—Mrs. Charles W. Morse's campaign for freeing her husband, who is now convict No. 2,816, in the United States prison at Atlanta, Ga., has started vigorously in New York city. Petitions asking President Taft to pardon the banker have been placed in the foyers of most of the big hotels and in other places. Many of the petitions have already gained more than 100 signers. Scores of other petitions are being circulated privately. The petition reads: The petition reads

The petition reads:
"We pray for absolute pardon for Charles W. Morse, recently convicted of technical violation of the national banking act. From our konwledge of the circumstances, we believe that Mr. Morse did not intend to wrong the National Bank of North America. We

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT.

After Facial Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed. BY HARRIET META.

Trouble, worry and ill-health brought

BY HARRIET MEIA.

Trouble, worry and ill-health brought me deep lines and wrinkles I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success, because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister.

I therefore bought various brands of cold cream and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply woud not go. On the contrary, they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a beauty specialist, who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend of mine who was versed in chemistry made a suggestion, and this gave me a new idea. I immediately went to work making experiments and studying everything I could get hold of on the subject. After several long months of almost numberless trials and discouragements I finally discovered a process which produced most astonishing results on my wrinkles in a single night. I was delighted bevond expression. I tried my treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment to some of my immediate produced in the public. Miss Gladys Desmond, of Pittsburg, Pa., writes that it made her wrinkles disappear in one night.

Miss Henrietta, Jackson, of 9, Meil-ville Bldg. Pittsfield, Mass., says:

Miss Henrietta, Jackson, of 9, Meliville Bidg. Pittsfield, Mass., says:
"Your treatment is a Godsend to womankind... I wish every woman could know as I know the wonderful results which are produced by your treatment." Mrs. James Barss, of Central City., S. D., writes: "The change is so great that it seems more a work of magic."

so great that it seems more a work of magic."

I will send further particulars to anyone who is interested absolutely free of charge. I use no cream, facial massage, face steaming or so-called skin foods, there is nothing to inject and nothing to injure the skin. It is an entirely new discovery of my own and so simple that you can use it without the knowledge of your most intimate friends. You apply the treatment at night and go to bed. In the morning, lo! the wonderful transformation. People often write me: "It sounds too good to be true." Well, the test will tell. If interested in my discovery please address Harriet Meta, Suite 1144 F., Syracuse, N. Y., and I will send you full particulars."

architects here plans for remodelling the hall of representatives.

"It has been determined to decrease the size of the hall," he said, "by about a third. This will involve practically the re-construction of the house wing of the Capitol from floor to roof."

It has been decided, Mr. Woods explained, that under the present arrangements, the congressmen are so far from the speaker and each other that the house is at times unwieldy.

A GREATER FIFTH AVENUE.

New York, Jan. 12.—A greater Fifth avenue to be the "most distinguished thoroughfare, the most delightful promenade, the most charming boulevard in the world," is the aim of an organization just formed, named "The Merchants & Property Owners' association." The plans include the installation of a new system of lighting which they hope will make Broadway look like an insignificant side street in comparison.

A SPRAINED ANKLE.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, as by applying Chamberlain's Uniment, as directed, a cure may as a rule be effected in less than one week's time, and in many cases within three days. Chamberlain's Liniment also affords great relief in cases of chronic and muscular rheumatism. Twenty-rive and fifty cent bottles. Sold by all druggists. SPRAINED ANKLE.

BODIES RECOVERED FROM SNOWSLIDE

Cordova, Alaska, Jan. 11.—The bodies of Harry G. Elliott of New York, president of the Elliott-Hubbard Copper company of Chicago, and H. H. Greer of Seattle, who were killed in a snow-silde on the company's property at Elliott creek, 100 miles north of here, Dec. 30, have been recovered and are being brought to Cordova by fast dog teams for shipment to Seattle. Elliott and Greer went to Elliott creek late in December with a party of mining experts to examine the copper properties in the interests of a New York syndicate which holds the company's bonds. They were caught in a snowslide and were instantly killed. Accompanying Elliott and Greer were A. H. Berry of Chicago, E. J. Collins of Duluth and Martin Schurin of New York. They escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Elliott is expected to meet her husband's body at Scattle and take it east for burial.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 12.-Many governmental reforms are demanded in resomental reforms are demanded in reso-lutions presented to the National Live stock association for adoption today. Railroad rate legislation formed the basis of the morning discussion. The granting of power to the interstate commerce commission to review classi-fication, to annul changes in regulations and to institute proceedings on its own motion, as recommended by President Taft, are favored, but the resolutions oppose the appointment of an interstate comemcre court.

SAVED FROM DEATH IN A HORRIBLE MANNER

Princeton, Ind., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Zenas Finney was saved from a horrible death yesterday in an unusual manner. She had called her daughter, Miss Jessie Finney, over the telephone when, without warning, the daughter heard a clattering of the instrument and was unable to get her mother again. She hastily telephoned a neighbor to investigate, and when the neighbor ran into the Finney home she found Mrs. Finney unconscious with her head almost in an open fireplace.

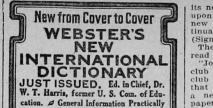

Mrs. Finney had been suddenly stricken with paralysis. Her condition is still serious.

COAL MINERS WILL REOPEN WAGE QUESTION

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Coal miners of the United States are preparing to re-open the question of wages after Jan. 20 and a demand for increased pay is expected. It may cause a marked advance in the present prices of coal.

The stand taken by the miners that they need higher wages because of increased cost of living comes as a part of the general movement of organized labor begun by the switchmen and railroad brotherhoods. The movement has already spread to include practically all branches of railroad labor.

"It is true that the mine workers will take up the question of wages," said John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, yesterday. "I do not see the necessity of higher priced coal even if the miners get increases, When coal which costs $7.50 a ton in the United States can be bought for $2.20 a ton in Canada, there is something more than wages boosting the price."

The coal men take a different view. They cannot figure how the miners can be paid more money and coal remain at former prices.

EXPRESS COMPANIES MAKE A POOR PUSSY PLEA

Chicago, Jan. 12.-Increased cost of handling express packages, as a result handling express packages, as a resum of higher wages and enlargement of facilities, were pleaded yesterday by officials of the companies at the hearing before the Illinois railroad and warehouse commission as a justification for advances of nearly 70 per cent in the rates out of Chicago. This defense was made in the face of the 300 per cent "melon" recently cut by the Wells-Fargo companies and profits of 50 to 75 per cent reported to have been made by other corporations.

J. C. Zimmerman, general manager of the Adams Express company, and J. H. Bradley, vice president and traffic manager of the American company, were witnesses of the company.

The testimony was largely in rebuttal to that introduced at previous hearings by Chicago merchants who filed complaints against the express companies on account of the advance in rates charged department stores for delivery of packages to the suburbs. After having been in effect for 15 years the rate of 30 cents per 100 pounds was advanced in February to 40 cents and in September to 50 cents. of higher wages and enlargement of

PRESS CLUBS EXCHANGE THEIR CONGRATULATIONS

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Congratulations over similar events and upon similar occasions were exchanged between two clubs of similar names hundreds of miles apart last night—the Press club of Chicago, and the Press club of New York. The occasions were the first banquets to be held in the new quarters of each organization, the New York organization of newspapermen having recently opened a magnificent new home and the Press club of Chicago having taken over the old quarters of the University club.

Early in the evening, the following telegram was dispatched by John C. Shaffer, newly elected president of the Press club of Chicago:

"Præsident Press club of New York: The Press club of Chicago, assembled at its thirteenth annual banquet in

The Dominion commission for conservation of natural resources, appointed last summer, will hold its first conference in Ottawa next week. This assemblage promises to be one of the most important held in Ottawa for many years, inasmuch as it tawa for many years, inasmuch as it will bring together probably the most important body of men ever assembled

ROBERTA DE JANON.

Her Father Delighted at Prospect of Her Return.

Her Return.

New York, Jan. 12—Ferdinand De Janon, father of the young Philadelphia helress, who was arrested by the Chicago police following the elopement with Frederick Cohen, a hotel waiter, has gone to Philadelphia to await the girl's return from Chicago. "I am making no attempt to conceal my delight at the prospect of Roberta's return," he said before leaving New York. "I cannot yet say what my attitude toward Cohen will be. But I think that his relations with my daughter have been absolutely honorable. Her letters and her actions show that.

that.
"I think her experience will be a lesson to Roberta. I can only attribute her action to an unwillingness to be torn away from her grandfather and me. She would have liked the school to which we proposed sending her, but the thought of leaving us was too much for her. She wanted to do something that would show us that she was not inclined to go."
